English Writing Celebration

YAY! Scholars are done with their second writing unit! It was so amazing to see their growth in writing and teaching us amazing facts!

More detailed information will be sent out by email on how it will go!

English Language Arts

This week in phonics we will continue Snap Word Boot Camp! Scholars will be guided through a series of exercises to help them reinforce their snap word retention.

We will revisit strategies that help us improve our reading skills and eventually add high frequency words to our word wall!

Students will be working on centers:

READING

LISTENING

WRITING TECHNIQS

GROUP READING

Units of Inquiry

HOW THE WORLD WORKS?

NEW UNIT BEGINS!

We finished our UOI unit on children spaces around the world and what makes them safe.

They showed big enthusiasm learning about it and acknowledging their role into planning kids' space in the community!

We will eventually begin exploring light and sound in our new unit. The first week will be about exploring both sound and light properties. We will see what they know about light and sound before we let them explore things created using them. Then we will move onto learning how they help us communicate.

French Language Arts

This week we are starting to learn about the body and its parts!

It will be interesting for them to know about they body and be able to integrate them to their speaking skills.

We also are getting more and more new books and we will be able to send by group every week now. Mr Pdk will be creating audio files

Math

UNIT 4 STARTS

This unit will be about measuring and fractions! Students will get to measure different things with different tools (cubes, papers cilps, beans, etc).

We will also begin measuring time and learn how to read it and eventually start learning about money!

Feel free to practice with them at any time measuring objects around the hour, reading time and doing easy equations with money.

library of the same books also so you can support better their reading activities! Centers will be going on and we will focus on writing, lesson activities, word recognition with bingo and card matching.

NB: FRENCH WRITING SESSION BEGINS THIS WEEK!

Scholars are truly excited to explore French writing about informational text! we will be doing a pre on demand to see what they know and will go right away with the sessions that are set to last six weeks.
