

Second round of debate for Opinion Writing!
Team work! Everyone did absolutely amazing voicing their opinion and defending them!!

English Language Arts

In this unit, we are using are ELA reading block to read literature stories showcasing the American Revolution.

Units of Inquiry

Students will continue the new unit on governance and the revolution. After studying the Totalitarianism with the example of Germany and the Absolute Monarchy with France, students will study Anarchy and Democracy.

Students will study different types of government and how it reflects on society.

French Language Arts

We are continuing the Unit of Inquiry about Government and Revolution. Our language Arts is directly connected to that unit. This week, after studying 4 types of government, students will explore different ways that people/society, express their disagreement with government and express what they want for their community/country.

This connects to the notion of Change, (How can we change our society/government for better) one of our key concepts for this Unit of Inquiry.

Math

The week we come back, students will learn about fraction. Working with halves, fourths, eighths of rectangles and other shapes.
