Dear Families,

What an exciting week! Scholars talked about responsibility and self-discipline. In French reading scholars participated in different centers to practice their reading fluency, listening, comprehension, and vocabulary skills. Scholars also talked about why plants come in different shapes in French UOI. In English reading scholars learned about making predictions and made their own predictions using Akissi books. Scholars also continued to listen to the different genre of D.C. musicians for IOU.

Have a great weekend,

The 3rd grade team.
