Dear Families,

This week scholars talked about courage and kindness. In English writing scholars finished publishing their literary essays, scholars learned about writing short summaries in language arts and learned to tell the difference from a multiplication and division story problem! This week in Spanish UOI scholars organized their drawings of leaves into two different scientific categories. On Friday, October 18th, the 3rd graders are going to the National Museum of the American Indian. If you would like to chaperon please let a teacher know.

Queridas familias,

Esta semana los estudiantes hablaron sobre coraje y amabilidad. En inglés, terminaron de publicar sus ensayos literarios, ¡Aprendieron a escribir resúmenes cortos en artes del lenguaje y aprendieron a distinguir la diferencia de un problema de multiplicación y división! Esta semana en español y en UOI organizaron sus dibujos de hojas en dos categorías científicas diferentes. El viernes 18 de octubre, los alumnos de 3er grado irán al Museo Nacional del Indio Americano. Si desea ser acompañante, por favor avísele a un maestro.

Thank you/Gracias
