Team work! Everyone did absolutely amazing voicing their opinion and defending them!!

English Language Arts

In this unit, we are using are ELA reading block to read literature stories showcasing the American Revolution.

Units of Inquiry

Students will continue the new unit on governance and the revolution. After studying the Totalitarianism with the example of Germany and the Absolute Monarchy with France, students will study Anarchy and Democracy.

Students will study different types of government and how it reflects on society.

French Language Arts

We are starting a new Unit of Inquiry about Government and Revolution. Our language Arts will be directly connected to that unit. This week, after studying totalitarianism and Monarchy, students will continue to study and analyze different type of government: anarchy and democracy.

We will review this type of government under the notions of Form, Change and Responsibility, which are our key concepts for this Unit of Inquiry.

Math

This week, students will extend their knowledge and understanding of numbers up to one million.

They will continue on practicing place value.
